

Export from SQL DB to BACPAC

Last updated by | Holger Linke | Jan 10, 2023 at 7:42 AM PST

Contents

- Export from Bacpac
- Topics Covered

Export from Bacpac

A BACPAC file is a ZIP file with an extension of BACPAC containing the metadata and data from a SQL Server database. When user need to export a database for archiving or for moving to another platform, user can export the database schema and data to a BACPAC file.

Topics Covered

Section covers TSG for handling Export issues from SQL Database to Bacpac

- Import Export Service Extended Queue Times
- Unable to export Sync Metadata Database
- Unable to export Elastic Jobs Database
- Export failing with GatewayTimeout
- How to - Export BACPAC \(Powershell\)
- Service was busy, please resubmit your request exporting a user database
- Cancel Import Export

How good have you found this content?

